STALIN DECLARES WAR ON JAPANESE

Hiroshima Totally Destroyed; 400 B-29's Bomb Industries

All Living Things— Human and Animal— Seared to Death By New Weapon

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8 — (AP) — Hiroshima is completely destroyed and the dead are too numerous to be counted, radio Tokyo declared today and claimed that use of the atomic bomb was a violation of international law.

Practically all living things—human and animal—were "literally seared to death" by the new weapon loosed against the industrial and military city Monday, admitted an enemy broadcast to America monitored by the Federal Communications Commission.

In a later broadcast to Europe in French, Tokyo referred to Hiroshima as an "open city" although it was known to be a quarter-master depot and important garrison town. It branded "attack by such means against open towns and defenseless citizens unforgivable actions."

The enemy radio quoted "authorized quarters in Tokyo" as contending that international law forbids belligerent nations "unlimited choice in the means by which to destroy their opponents."

"The destructive power of this new bomb spreads over a large area," said Tokyo radio. "People who were outdoors x x x were burned alive by high temperature while those who were indoors were crushed by falling buildings."

Special Jap Session

As soon as reports from the scene of devastation were available, the shaken Japanese cabinet hurried into special session in the official residence of Premier Kameyama Suzuki. The dome news agency said it heard the report of Hisatsune Sekomizu, chief cabinet secretary.

Also timely in the tensing situation was his report on progress in organizing the people's volunteer corps, which is scheduled to take up arms when invasion comes. Dome did not report any decisions from the meeting.

The terrible effect of the bomb was revealed in the statement that relief workers were unable to even distinguish the dead from the injured, much less identify either.

City Is Ruined

The city was left in "disastrous ruin" with houses and buildings crushed, Tokyo reported. It added that authorities could not establish the extent of civilian casualties and had "their hands full giving every available relief possible under the circumstances."

Destruction was so heavy that even emergency medical facilities were burned out and relief squads were rushed from surrounding districts, the broadcast disclosed.

Horrible Cruelty

By the Associated Press
The Tokyo radio quoted a Japanese commentator today as saying that the methods the United States is employing in the war against Japan have exceeded in "horrible cruelty" the atrocities perpetrated by Genghis Khan in India and Afghanistan.

"The present forms of indiscriminate bombing by the American air force upon Japanese cities are unlike Japan's careful and thoughtful methods of air raids on Shanghai and Nanking," said the commentator, identified by the broadcast as Toyohiko Kagawa. "A noted religious leader."

The fact that America has adopted such methods shows that she "already is morally defeated," added the broadcast, which was recorded by the Associated Press.

Kagawa reiterated the old Japanese thesis that Japan is fighting only for the "liberation of the Asiatic race," and declared: "If America has not lost the spirit of Washington and Lincoln, her leaders will see the cruel futility of this war against Japan."

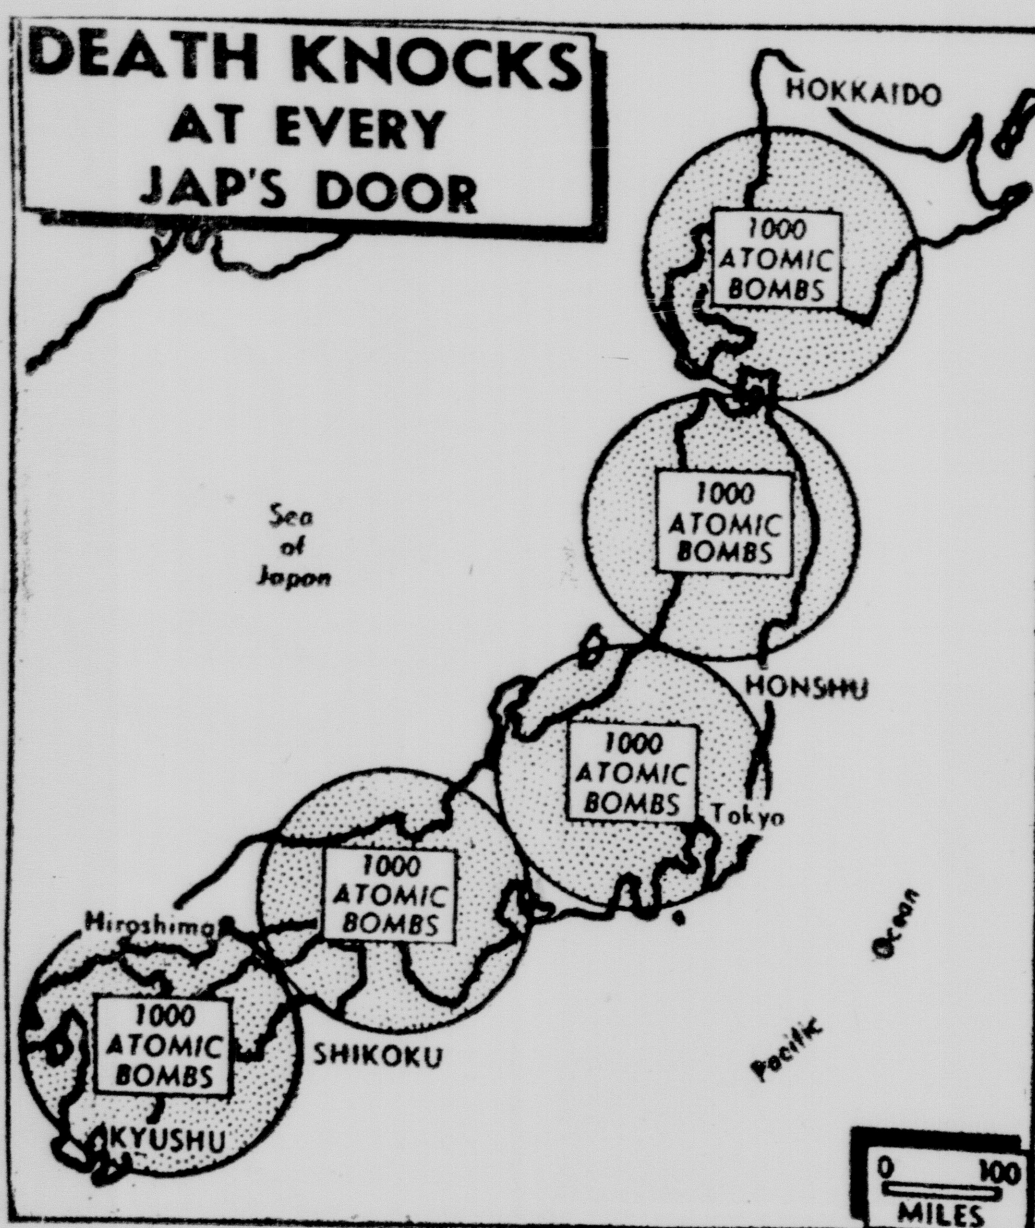

"Sideline"

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 8 — (AP) — It's really becoming confusing — this business of buying a bottle of whiskey in Missouri.

A law states that the dealer who sells you a quart of bourbon must carry at least $1,000 worth of wholly non-intoxicating stock, making the liquor a "sideline."

So yesterday a thirsty shopper in Kansas City found: one of his favorite drink shops with the customary stock of liquor, plus $1,000 worth of tooth paste; another with 800 pairs of button-top and other ration-free shoes, and nothing else but wines, whiskies and other liquors.

Power of Atomic Bomb

All Japan could be leveled hopelessly and every inhabitant might be killed by 5,000 strategically spaced atomic bombs which, according to grim reports, have killing power within radius of four miles. All 260,000 square miles of Jap homeland could be covered by atomic bombs, as map indicates. (NEA Telephoto)

Men From Kansas Institution Are Problem for Pettis County

A county problem brought about when two men, who escaped from a state institution at Parsons, Kansas, were picked up sometime ago, has been solved. Sheriff Ed Goetz, decided to take the two men to the Missouri-Kansas state line where he will turn them over to attendants from the Kansas state institution, this evening.

The men were first picked up by local police for questioning and lodged in the city jail. Chief of Police Anson Finnell had the authorities of Kansas contacted and was told they could not come to Missouri after the men, but if they were taken to the state line they would take charge of them.

The City of Sedalia does not have the authority to let the police take the men to the state line, and although Chief of Police Anson Finnell in some cases acts as ex-officio constable, he had no right to take them out of the city without authority from the county court. He then released the men to Sheriff Goetz rather than turn them loose in the city, thinking they were more of a state problem.

No Charges Preferred

No charges were preferred against the men. If insanity charges were filed and a hearing held, it would have added more expense on the county, especially if they were sent to an institution. It was already admitted they belong to Kansas and are escapees.

Judge J. V. Kesterson and Judge J. L. McCurdy, felt it was the duty of Kansas to come after their own charges. However, some "hitch" in the Kansas law would not permit this. The two judges would not allow traveling expense for Sheriff Goetz, and he

Hit With Mounting Fury; Start Huge Fires in Centers; See no Enemy Planes

By Murlin Spencer

GUAM, Aug. 8 — (AP) —

The growing fleet of Superfortresses struck for the third straight day today with multiple blows landing on the Japanese empire at Yawata, the Tokyo arsenal, the Nakajima aircraft factory just outside Tokyo and the chemical center of Fukuyama.

The B-29s hit with mounting fury as Admiral Halsey's mighty Third fleet returned to Japanese waters for new attacks after riding out a typhoon — the only effective defense against its savage bombardment of the home islands.

Beginning with a daylight raid on Yawata, the "Pittsburgh of Japan" four groups of superfortresses cascaded destruction down on the home islands, the last raid striking Fukuyama just before midnight. Probably 400 B-29s, some with fighter escort, participated in the raids.

Fukuyama, 42 miles north of Kure on Honshu and one of the cities forewarned of its doom, was the target of 100 B-29s of Brig. Gen. Roger M. Ramey's Tenth-based 58th wing.

The incendiaries hit a square mile industrial area containing among important industries the imperial dye works, the Kawasaki aircraft factory and the Mitsubishi Electric Co.

A flight of 225 fighters escorted the B-29s assaulted Yawata with 1,500 tons of demolition bombs, starting huge fires in the great northwestern Kyushu steel center.

Fifty other superfortresses also smashed for the 12th time at the great Nakajima aircraft plant, which once turned out 75 per cent of Nippon's combat engines. When heavy weather closed over the plant another small group turned from that target to plaster the Tokyo arsenal with heavy demolition bombs.

Returning pilots reported encountering heavy flak over both the arsenal and the aircraft plant, but of seeing no enemy planes.

Other B-29s mined the entrances to the important harbors of Shimonoseki, Maunuru and Sakai on Honshu and Rashin on northern Korea.

Still more of the superforts moved closer to Japan for new strikes as the first of the Giants under the eighth air force command of Lt. Gen. James Doolittle landed at their new Okinawa base, ready to coordinate their blows with those of the 20th air force and the army and navy.

A navy department radio commentator bluntly warned Japan that Halsey's fleet again is near, and explained only destructive winds had interrupted the Third fleet assaults that cost the enemy more than 1,000 vessels and 1,300 planes, destroyed or damaged, in the last 22 days of July. Japan herself had offered no real defense.

Armour Executive Dies
KANSAS CITY, Aug. 8 — (AP) — William B. McElroy, former general superintendent of the Kansas City, Kas., plant of Armour and Co., died last night at the age of 64. He had been with the company for 45 years, retiring in 1942.

Secretary of State C. G. Hall arrived at the scene after being notified by the capitol building superintendent that someone was dumping carloads of bottles on the steps. An astonished crowd gathered, and helped themselves to bottles of rum, brandy, wines and gin.

Hall ordered what he left locked in the capitol powerhouse garage until, he said, he could determine what disposition should be made of the beverage.

Report to Nation on Thursday

President Truman Will go Into Detail On Potsdam Parley In 30-Minute Talk

By Ernest B. Vaccaro

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 — (AP) — President Truman will report to the nation on the Potsdam conference over all radio networks at 10 p. m. Eastern War Time Thursday in a 30-minute speech.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said today the speech, which probably also will be short, will go into greater detail than the communique issued by the Big Three at the close of the meeting July 26.

Mr. Truman worked on the speech today as well as on a mass of other paper work which accumulated during his month long absence. He held his calling list to a minimum, including brief conferences with Senators Hatch (D-NM) and Kilgore, (D-WVA) and Secretary of War Stimson.

The Stimson conference was devoted to further discussion of the atomic bomb.

Associates of the president indicated that his report on the Potsdam conference probably will mention the new and revolutionary bomb used for the first time against Japan.

These assistants said they did not know however if the presidential address would go into any greater detail on the Pacific war, a phase that was ignored in the Big Three conference announcement because of Russia's neutrality.

Mr. Truman scheduled a meeting with his cabinet Friday and decided to withhold any news of his public report on the Big Three meeting.

As tentatively drafted aboard the cruiser Augusta, in which Mr. Truman made a 125-hour return voyage from Plymouth, England, the address will require 30 minutes to deliver.

It is expected to cover every phase of the historic agreements the president signed at Berlin with Generalissimo Stalin and Prime Minister Attlee.

Some of these are now housed — or will be soon — in the Nuremberg jail to await trial. There they will lose status as prisoners of war and be treated as civil criminals.

The agreement — reached after three weeks of conferences which once approached a stalemate broken only by the intervention of the Big Three during the Potsdam conference — contains 30 articles, ranging from the constitution of the court to a plan for handling the expenses of the trial.

"Honor Band March" (Weber); "Zenith Overture" (Bennett); "Stouthearted Men" (Romberg); trumpet solo, "Majestic Polka" (Ward), Jimmy Watts, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Watts.

"Kemper Military March" (W. B. Hart); "Song of Love" (Romberg); baton exhibition, "Summit March" (Griffith) Virginia Berry, Marilyn Williams and Pauline Milburn.

"Activity March" (G. Holmes); "Dancing Tambourine" (W. C. Polla); "Military Escort" (Bennett); "Star Spangled Banner."

Will Fight Donnelly's Veto

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 8 — (AP) — Sen. Ralph Erdwin (R) of Concordia said today he would fight to override Gov. Phil M. Donnelly's veto of companion bills which would have transferred the Confederate Veterans' Home at Higginsville to the federal government.

The governor viewed the proposed transfer as an unconstitutional breach of the obligation the state assumed in 1897 to care for Confederate veterans, widows and orphans. Erdwin, however, said he thought that was a flimsy excuse.

The senator said in his statement that it was ridiculous to keep on maintaining the home for confederate soldiers or widows "in view of the fact that for many years the per capita cost to the state for maintaining this home has been enormous."

No Quota for 1915 Cars Set

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 8 — (AP) — No quota on 1945 passenger automobiles has been set and applications for new cars are being returned by rationing boards as fast as they are received, District Director William H. Bryan said last night.

Bryan said it is expected that no quota will be set until cars are being produced in sufficient volume to permit eligible applicants to purchase them without a long wait.

Bryan also announced that 1945 jeeps are classified as light trucks, not subject to rationing by the OPA. Residents of Eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois may send applications for jeeps to the Office of Defense Transportation, Paul Brown Building, St. Louis.

Sign Plan for Mass Trial of War Criminals

Nazis Lose Status Of Prisoners; Are Civil Criminals

LONDON, Aug. 8 — (AP) — A master plan for the mass trial of Germany's arch war criminals before an international military tribunal was signed today by the legal representatives of the United States, Great Britain, Russia and France.

The historic document, setting legal and military precedents, gives the high tribunal sweeping powers to punish by death, deprive the convicted of stolen property, disregard "technical rules of evidence" in the interests of speed and take strict measures to prevent delays.

Under the agreement the permanent seat of the tribunal is to be established in Berlin, but the first trial will be held at Nuremberg, long the seat and meeting place of the Nazi party.

Four Court Members

The tribunal itself is to consist of four members, each with an alternate, representing the four big powers. Before this body will be arraigned such Nazi bigwigs as Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering, former foreign minister von Ribbentrop, Rudolf Hess, Franz von Papen, former ambassador to Turkey, labor front leader Robert Ley, Julius Streicher, the Jew-baiter, and Hans Frank, Nazi governor of Poland.

Some of these are now housed — or will be soon — in the Nuremberg jail to await trial. There they will lose status as prisoners of war and be treated as civil criminals.

The agreement — reached after three weeks of conferences which once approached a stalemate broken only by the intervention of the Big Three during the Potsdam conference — contains 30 articles, ranging from the constitution of the court to a plan for handling the expenses of the trial.

Deer Leave Zoo

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 8 — (AP) — Blithely unaware of the meat shortage, 22 deer are wandering about Kansas City today, fugitives from Swope Park.

Someone cut two eight-foot wire fences last night, permitting the animals to leave their new corrals at the zoo. Six of them were seen but not captured early this morning.

President Truman Greeting Reporters, Hurriedly Summoned to a News Conference This Afternoon, with a Broad Grin, Became Solemn as he Disclosed That the Soviet Union Had at Last Declared War on Japan

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 — (AP) — President Truman announced today that Russia had declared war on Japan. Mr. Truman made the momentous announcement to a hurriedly summoned news conference.

He said he had only a simple statement to make but it was so important he could not delay it.

The president greeted reporters with a broad grin. Then he became solemn as he said:

Russia has just declared war on Japan. That is all.

The disclosure that the Soviet Union at last had pitted its enormous might alongside Britain and the United States against the Pacific enemy had not been unexpected.

When it would come, however, had been a matter of conjecture for months.

Official Washington at once took this development, along with the unleashing of atomic bombing against the Pacific enemy, as a sure sign that Japan can not long continue to resist.

The president sat behind his desk for a minute until the 30 or so correspondents all were gathered around him. Then he arose, flanked on the right by Admiral of the Fleet William Leahy, his personal chief of staff, and on the left by Secretary of State James F. Byrnes.

The president was wearing a light gray tropical suit and a blue and white four-in-hand necktie.

He explained that he had no intention of holding a news conference but this matter was so important he felt that it couldn't wait.

Mr. Truman then made the simple one sentence announcement of Russia's declaration of war. He added that was all he had to say.

The short announcement brought a gasp from reporters who had rushed to the White House in a stream of taxicabs and an exclamation of "My God" from some.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 — (AP) — The Big Three and France today proclaimed their determination to separate Austria completely from Germany. Simultaneously, the four powers announced machinery to accomplish this purpose.

Pending ultimate independence under a "freely elected" government, a joint statement said, Austria and its capital city, Vienna, are to be split into four zones of military occupation. Each zone will have a military commissioner exercising supreme authority. For the country as a whole, the four will constitute an allied council.

The provisional government of Dr. Karl Renner, which came into existence with the permission, although not the formal recognition of Russian occupation forces which liberated Austria, is being allowed to continue under Allied supervision.

The division of the country and the machinery created to control it are similar to the divisions and controls applied in Germany. The great difference is in purpose. The objective of German control is to render the nation powerless ever to make war again while the announced purpose of Austrian occupation is to foster a free and independent nation.

Agreements for the Austrian control machinery and the division of the country into zones were worked out by the European advisory commission at London and signed there early last month. A state department announcement said Gen. Mark Clark, who led the American military commission for Austria, and John G. Erhardt, chief political adviser to Clark.

American occupation forces are not in Austria yet but are expected to move into their zone in a few days. It is the northwestern zone, consisting of the province of Salzburg and that part of the province of upper Austria on the right bank of the Danube.

The announcement was broadcast at 10 p. m. Moscow time (2 p. m. Central War Time), two hours before midnight.

It quoted a statement from Soviet foreign commissar Vyacheslav Molotov.

The midnight deadline is 4 p. m. Central War Time. Molotov's statement, as broadcast by Moscow, said:

"On August 8 the people's commissar for foreign affairs of the U. S. S. R. Molotov received the Japanese ambassador, Mr. Sato, and gave him on behalf of the Soviet government, the following for transmission to the Japanese government:

"After the defeat and capitulation of Hitlerite Germany, Japan became the only great power that still stood for the continuation of the war.

Japan Rejects Demand
"The demand of the three powers, the United States, Great Britain and China on July 26 on the unconditional surrender of the Japanese armed forces was rejected by Japan, and thus the proposal of the Japanese government to the Soviet Union on mediation in the war in the Far East loses all basis.

"Taking into consideration the refusal of Japan to capitulate, the Allies submitted the proposal to the Soviet government to join the war against Japanese aggression, and thus shorten the duration of the war, reduce the number of victims and facilitate the speedy restoration of universal peace.

"In view of the above, the Soviet government declares that tomorrow, that is from Aug. 9, the Soviet government will consider itself to be at war with Japan."

Paper Lost War For Germany

Secret Document Discovery Saved British Thousands

FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 8.—(AP)—The accidental discovery of a secret German document enabled the British to evacuate 330,000 men from the trapped beaches of Dunkerque, the U. S. army disclosed Tuesday.

"This was the paper that lost the war for Germany because it opened an escape hatch through which the core of the British regular army slipped through, and gave Britain at least the semblance of enough strength to hold on until Russia and the United States were drawn to her aid," an intelligence officer of G-2 said.

At an hour when the French were being slaughtered and the British were making a desperate effort to evacuate their helpless divisions, a member of the German general staff on a reconnaissance mission pushed too far ahead of his own lines and was fired upon by a British patrol.

Veterans of Battles in Europe Learn New Techniques

Redeployment training places great emphasis on flame-throwers. Fully one-third of the men will be trained as experts in the use of this weapon—which has been found to be more effective against Jap cave-digging tactics than against the German type of fighting.

took off across the fields but their vehicle was set afire and was captured by the patrol. In it was a copy of a surprise attack in the Calais region aimed at cutting off the British escape.

The document fell into the hands of the commander of a small British force screening the Dunkerque beaches only a few hours before the attack was scheduled to begin.

It foretold a hook movement by a German force moving up from Abbeville and striking in the rear of the Dunkerque area.

Gambling everything on bold strategy, the British commander concentrated every man he had at the point of attack.

The Germans attacked on schedule but their initial thrust was stopped cold and the British covering force held for three days while the frantic skippers of the weirdest assortment of junks, garbage scows, barges, yachts and other small craft ever assembled, emptied the beaches of 330,000 British troops.

Captured documents played a decisive part in at least half a dozen major engagements of the European war, this source said.

Would Implement New School Tax

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Bills to implement new school tax provisions of the 1945 Missouri constitution were approved Tuesday by the senate education committee, but no ceilings were set.

The new code permits school districts in cities and towns to levy up to $1 per $100 assessed valuation, except the city of St. Louis would be limited to 89 cents. Rural districts would be able to levy 65 cents.

Forty cents and 60 cents were the old rates.

The new school tax bills, as authorized by the new code, set up machinery for exceeding the limits for four-year periods by a two-third vote of the people. The constitution permits the legislature to fix other specific limits, but the committee took no action on that phase.

WASHINGTON — "Redeployment training," just getting under way, is the process by which army ground forces will teach a couple of million GI veterans of the war in Europe how to tackle the fanatical Japs.

Training will be given at the best camps. As any GI will tell you, there's a difference between posts. Such things as nearness to a city with good transportation, plenty of recreation facilities, good weather and well-built quarters go toward making camp life more pleasant.

What's expected to appeal most to the men is a five-and-one-half day, 44-hour week. They'll get every Saturday afternoon and Sunday off. Their previous training sometimes kept them in camp seven days a week.

Biggest difference between this and their earlier training will be the emphasis on athletics. Baseball, football, boxing and other physical contact sports will take up six hours a week, not including sports in which they can take part on their own time. Marching and drilling will be kept at a minimum. GI's already know too well what that's all about.

There's a vast difference between fighting Japs and fighting Germans. German soldiers were more intelligent but not fanatical fighters. If an individual soldier or platoon were to handle the Japs the way they learned to fight the Germans it might be sure death.

Japs Are Diggers

The Jap is a digger, a cave fighter. Men will be taught the latest in demolition methods as the basis for fighting against troops embedded in caves. One-third of all the men will be trained in using flame throwers. They will be grounded thoroughly in amphibious assault.

Mock combat with Jap Nisei troops is an integral part of the training. Jap uniforms will be worn by the Nisei to acquaint the men with the foe. They will be familiarized with Jap weapons, so that they can use captured Jap guns as well as recognize their sound and performance.

Taking a German town is an entirely different tactical problem from taking a Jap village. Some Jap villages have high stone walls around them. This takes closer liaison with mortar and artillery outfits. Once inside a Jap village, house to house fighting is different than in a German city. Our men can't dodge between solid stone buildings. Jap structures are flimsy. An entirely different technique is necessary.

Typical Jap villages have been set up at various training posts and the men make practice assaults. In Europe there was comparatively little night fighting. The Japs move equipment and troops at night, and we have used night maneuvers against them successfully.

Every ruse the Jap has used against our troops will be explained fully to European vets. These include playing dead and hiding grenades on their person and exploding them upon capture.

Use New Weapons

New weapons are constantly being developed. There are many large and small arms now being used against the Japs, and some soon to be used that the public hasn't heard about. Training the men in the effective use of these will take up much of the time. One the public has already heard about is the new 75-mm. non-recoil gun. Most of the European vets have not used these. Also, in the process of debarking from Europe and taking their furloughs, they've gotten rusty in the use of the old weapons, and need refresher training.

Fighting the Japs requires a smaller proportion of armored divisions. Many armored troops will have to be re-trained as plain infantrymen.

Combating disease and unsanitary conditions peculiar to the Pacific theater is a highly important item to be taught these men. Each soldier will be equipped with a "jungle kit" which contains, in addition to items with which he is already familiar, atabrine tablets and other tropical preventatives and cures.

ROUGH ON RATS!

ROUGH ON RUBBER!

Landing Wheels of a Boeing B-29 Superfortress.

You're Looking At A "Run-Down Heel"!

Out where the palm trees wave and they carve the air strips out of coral, the ground crews were going nuts.

It was the tires on those rear landing-wheels! Like the heels on a well-walked pair of shoes, those big tires just seemed to get an awful lot of the gaff.

Result—at one time those big rubber doughnuts were being chewed up and torn to shreds in about fifteen landings!

Suppose you had to have new heels after wearing a pair of shoes only fifteen times! It would mean plenty of expense, trouble, and bother, wouldn't it? Well mister, just multiply that worn-out heel on the B-29 by all the jeeps and preps and planes and you'll begin to get some idea of Uncle Sam's rubber troubles!

That's why it was so important that some way be found to keep America's mechanized might rolling on rubber—when practically all raw rubber stocks were in the hands of the Japs. America's Synthetic Rubber Program had to work out!

Well, it did work out. And one of the most important reasons why it did was the tremendous production of butadiene—essential ingredient of synthetic rubber—by oil companies such as Phillips!

Today, we know that when you see the Orange and Black 66 sign, you think of good motor oil and gasoline. In the future, when peace comes, we hope you'll remember Phillips as one of the greatest producers of wartime butadiene, and of the essential chemical ingredients for medicines, explosives, aviation fuel, and dozens of other things vital to the defeat of Germany and Japan.

Booster Club Hears Talk by J. V. Kesterson

Shopmen Also Speak to Group On Timely Subjects

The regular monthly business meeting of the Sedalia Booster club was held during the noon hour Tuesday in the boiler shop with F. G. Rose, chief booster, presiding.

Following the report by the secretary, J. F. Taylor, Rose made a short talk covering many items of interest to shop men. He again urged all to put in their winter supply of coal now as the coal situation is going to be serious this year.

Mr. Rose presented J. L. Curry, who responded with a few remarks relative to the Round Table meetings and gave a report on same. In connection with the Round Table discussion Mr. Curry pointed out that one item now under consideration is the building of a new athletic stadium and Memorial building in the city. He expressed desire that everyone listening had a chance of expressing their viewpoint on this matter and wished they would do so. He said letters of inquiry had been sent to the boys of Sedalia who are now in service, to learn how they feel about the matter. Some favorable letters have been received in which the boys expressed their sincere desire to see a new stadium and a Memorial building in honor of those who had given their lives in service of their country.

County Judge Speaks
Judge J. V. Kesterson of the county court in Sedalia, was the next speaker being presented by Mr. Rose. Judge Kesterson expressed his appreciation to those who helped to make the Memorial service recently held at the State Fair Grounds the success that it was. He spoke regarding the War Dad's organization, its founding and its work. In his remarks Judge Kesterson spoke of post war plans. His talk was interesting and to the point. "We owe something to our boys and girls who have left their homes to make this country safe and above all to those who have given their lives. We must do something for those who will return home one of these days," he said.

Kilbury Speaks
C. R. Kilbury, superintendent of shops, closed the meeting with a brief talk relative to Safety First, absentee man hours and the output of locomotives and cars.

He expressed his appreciation to those who helped make the output of locomotives and cars during the month of July and stated there is a big job ahead of us for August. Continuing Mr. Kilbury spoke of the railroads being a business and every employee should consider himself a business man. In doing this they should be courteous and have respect for their fellow-men.

Mr. Kilbury in speaking of Safety First mentioned the word "Think." "This is an important word" he said, "and if we stop and 'think' before we do anything there will be fewer injuries, hard feelings, etc. If we connect this word with safety even minor injuries will be cut down.

Seismograph Director Asserts 'Nature Still Is Champ'

By Arthur N. Edson
WASHINGTON, Aug. 8—(P)—It's as silly to compare an atomic bomb explosion and an earthquake as it to stack an ant up against an elephant.

That's the opinion of the Rev. Frederick W. Sohon, S. J., director of the Seismograph observatory at Georgetown University. He says that although man certainly has become a destructive little fellow, nature still is champ. No question of it.

Father Sohon feels pretty strongly about this, he told an interviewer, for:

"Yesterday certainly was a trying day. The phone kept ringing with people wanting to know whether the atomic bomb registered on our Seismograph."

And the answer?
Neither the practice bombing in New Mexico nor the attack on Japan caused the slightest ruffle on the earthquake-recording seismograph.

To his knowledge no seismograph ever has paid any heed to man and his operations more than 100 miles away.

He says recorders at schools in the northeastern states, especially tuned for local disturbances so they could catch previously unrecorded minor New England earthquakes, have picked up navy depth bombing 100 miles at sea.

But father Sohon says that any earthquake less than 15 miles deep is considered shallow by the seismographers—and some have been recorded 300 to 400 miles down.

Compared with even the most piddling earthquake, he says, the atomic bomb looks pretty sheepish. And if man really is out to destroy the world, as some people fear, he'd better start hustling for he's just scratching the surface.

Still Ignore Ultimatum To Surrender

Truman Takes Charge of Drive to Knock Out Japan

By John M. Hightower

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—(P)—President Truman, taking personal direction of the drive he believes will knock Japan out of the war, summoned Secretary of War Stimson today for a first-hand report on the atomic bombing of the enemy homeland.

When the next bomb will be released was a military secret known only to the White House, and high command. But the Japanese continued to ignore the Potsdam ultimatum to surrender and it was reported that the time was running short on another one of their cities fated to suffer the doom of Hiroshima.

One of the president's first acts on returning to his White House office today, after a month's absence at Potsdam, was to set up a radio report to the nation for 9 p. m. CWT tomorrow.

At the White House, it was stated that Mr. Truman would have "something" to say about the atomic bomb and its use against the Japanese.

No Knowledge of "Something"

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said he didn't know whether the "something" about the bomb would be a new surrender or die ultimatum to the Japanese.

Japan's reaction to atomic blasting of Hiroshima four days ago shared attention here with the army's announcement that 60 percent of the once populace city had been wiped out. Japanese broadcasts spared none of the details of horror which they found in the city. But authorities were uncertain whether this might be propaganda line to stiffen resistance against the United States, or a means of preparing for surrender on the ground that Japan no longer can resist the awesome powers arrayed against her.

Byrnes Joins Conference

Secretary of State James F. Byrnes joined the Truman-Stimson conference shortly after Undersecretary of State Joseph C. Grew had personally brought some papers from the State Department to the White House.

When Stimson left the executive offices, he told reporters that he had given the president additional reports on the effect of the atom bomb on Hiroshima. These he declined to discuss.

Troopships Landing Today

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—(P)—The troopship Santa Marta arrived today with 215 veterans of the war in Europe, most of them members of the 1,927th Ordnance Ammunition Company of the Ninth Air Force.

Also included among the personnel of the Santa Marta were elements of the 199th, 201st, and 202nd Laundry Detachments of the Quartermaster Corps.

Lt. Donald McKinnon, of Petoskey, Mich., was troop transport commander of the Santa Marta. The troop commander was Capt. Richard K. Burb, of Atlanta, Ga., commanding officer of the 1,927th Ordnance Ammunition Company.

Pacific War Is Now in The Home Stretch

Japan Must Give Up or be Wiped Out by New Bomb

By DeWitt Mackenzie
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

It is with vast pride in an epochal discovery, but in no spirit of exultation, that we learn from our own authorities that 60 percent of the great city of Hiroshima was wiped out by the single atomic bomb dropped on it, and from Japanese spokesmen that virtually all living things in this industrial and military center were "literally seared to death."

Exclusive possession of the atomic bomb has placed the United States and its allies in the peculiar position of being able to destroy Japan almost at will.

There are those who hold that the world would be better off without the Japanese race—and I have heard that claimed within the hour. They advance as argument the military aggression and frightful savagery shown by the Japs during the past eight years in the war against China and finally against the other United Nations. And certainly there is enough evidence to hang the race, what with the rape and rapine and physical torture and murder which the mikado's fighting forces have practiced throughout these eight long years.

Prefers Peace Settlement

Still, I believe that even those proponents of destruction for the Japanese nation would, for the most part, really prefer to see the war settled more in the spirit of our new peace organization. As for the Allied governments, they have made it clear that they do not want to have to administer the coup de grace to Nippon.

President Truman has given Tokyo fresh warning in his statement announcing the terrifying creation of the atomic bomb. One would expect a further formal ultimatum, calling on the Japanese to surrender forthwith or suffer the extreme penalty. That should bring capitulation if the war lords have even a grain of common sense.

The Japanese government knows that there's no question of the Allies trying to bluff. The atomic bomb is no propaganda stunt. And how can Tokyo be sure of that? For the very simple reason that the Allies have had to hang their bomb on the line for all to see. They had to give Japan a demonstration and this they did in the terrifying single blow at the Hiroshima military establishment. Hirohito's captains can see the awful truth about atomic destruction.

Barrage of Epithets

Japanese spokesmen are busy throwing up a defensive barrage of epithets like "inhuman," "bestial" and "barbaric" while the cabinet meets and tries to figure out what to do. For Japan and for the world in general it will be far better if Tokyo will see reason and quit without further bombardment. However if they insist on being wiped out, the Allies are in position to do the job quickly.

Whichever way it goes, the war of the Pacific is in the home stretch.

Mrs. Truman To Washington

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Aug. 8.—(P)—Mrs. Harry S. Truman left here by train at 7:30 a. m. (CWT) for Washington where she will join her husband at the White House.

Except for one secret service man, the First Lady was alone. Her daughter, Miss Margaret Truman, who has been with her mother at the summer White House, remained here with her grandmother, Mrs. G. W. Wallace.

Reports from Washington have indicated that the President and Mrs. Truman will return to Independence within a few weeks.

Mrs. Truman left Independence aboard the Missouri Pacific Eagle.

OPA Representatives Here

Clarence P. Short and Frank Rose, representatives of the OPA, Kansas City district office, arrived this morning on a business visit to the Pettis county rationing board. They are expected to discuss the possible appointment of a chief clerk this afternoon. The local rationing office has been without a chief clerk for more than two months.

ATCHISON, Kas., Aug. 8.—(P)—"Some of these days I'll be wheeling a baby buggy in here with a 'ween-age' criminal in it."

The comment came from Police Sgt. Charles Lyman as he entered the station with two boys, six and eight years old, who admitted stealing a scooter and a tricycle.

Crew of 8 From Many States Carried Out Historic Bombing

GUAM—(Delayed)—(P)—The historic atomic bomb attack against Hiroshima was carried by a crew of eight men from widely separated home states and possessing varied war records.

The pilot of the B-29 which dropped the immensely powerful explosive was Col. Paul W. Tibbets, Jr., of Miami, Fla. He has an eight year record with the army air force.

Maj. Thomas W. Ferebee, of Mocksville, N. C., served as bombardier and released the missile which destroyed 60 percent of the southern Honshu city of 343,000.

Tibbets and Ferebee are graduates of the B-17 Flying Fortress.

Capt. Robert A. Lewis, Ridgefield, N. J., served as co-pilot on the Hiroshima bombing mission. He has been in the service three and a half years.

7-Million Man Army Needed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—(P)—The army still figures it needs a 7,000,000-man army to defeat Japan despite the prospect that the atomic bomb may shorten the war.

This was learned today in the face of speculation that the powerful new weapon might force the Japanese to capitulate before American soldiers set foot on Nipponese shores.

The army's stand is that it is taking no chances, hence it is proceeding on the assumption that invasion will be necessary. It is going ahead with its original plan for redeployment of troops and the creation of a powerful force in the Pacific.

For this reason, the army is tapering the discharge of 1,500,000 men under the point system to the needs of General MacArthur's accelerated campaign against the Japanese.

The army's attitude was emphasized further by a Selective Service assertion last night that there was little prospect of easing up draft calls for men between 18 and 30. Inductions now total about 100,000 a month.

Witnesses in Petain Trial Threatened

By Louis Nevim

PARIS, Aug. 8.—(P)—A defense witness for Marshal Petain testified today that both the United States and Great Britain informed France they would be unable to send her aid in the Orient and suggested that the Vichy regime accept Japanese demands on French Indo-China.

Gen. Maurice Martin was the witness. He testified that the French command in Indo-China had been determined to fight on in 1940, when the Japanese demanded closing of the supply route to China.

The witness said Cordell Hull, then U. S. Secretary of State, advised Vichy unofficially to accede to Japanese demands and close the route to Chungking. Hull was represented as saying the United States could send no arms.

Gen. Martin said Britain sent a similar message, suggesting that France avoid complications in the Orient.

Threatening Letters

Jurors in the trial said they had received threatening letters.

The streets of Paris were littered with leaflets attacking witnesses who have testified against Petain. The marshal's lawyers said they would complete their lists of witnesses by Friday and that the trial should be concluded by Tuesday. The leaflets entitled "This Strange Trial" gave no indication of their source but referred sarcastically to former premiers Paul Reynaud and Edouard Daladier and former President Albert Lebrun. The high court of justice where Petain is on trial for his life was termed "the court of high comedy."

Taking Hero's Body Home

Col. K. C. McGregor, commanding officer of the Sixth Ferrying Group, Long Beach, was honorary pilot and head of an escort of seven majors.

Others aboard the plane, which left here at 10 o'clock last night (Pacific War Time), were Maj. Earl Kingsley, guard of honor; Mrs. Clarence Toy, wife of Maj. C. J. Toy of the Western District Air Technical Service Command; and Jerome Vattendahl, brother of Mrs. Bong.

Wham yesterday after pleading guilty to an indictment charging possession of counterfeit sugar ration coupons.

Stewart recently was fined $250 and placed on two-year probation by Judge Wham.

Hitler Blocked Churchill- Goering Pre-War Peace Parley

Says Frau Goering in Exclusive Interview

This dispatch by Curt Riess, NEA foreign correspondent, based on an exclusive interview with Frau Emmy Goering, wife of the No. 2 Nazi leader.

By CURT RIESS
Copyright, 1945, NEA Service, Inc.

NEAR GERMAN CZECHOSLOVAK BORDER — Frau Emmy Goering believes that if Adolf Hitler had not held up a message from Winston Churchill, her husband could have prevented World War II. Hermann Goering was opposed to the war, she claims, but she did not give me any idea what he could have done about it.

Albert Forster, later gauleiter of Danzig, was in England shortly before hostilities broke out in 1939, Emmy told me. He was asked by Churchill to tell Goering that the Briton (not yet prime minister at that time) would like to talk to him.

"Tell Goering to come to England," Churchill urged Forster, according to Emmy.

The message was relayed to Hitler, and Goering heard nothing about it until a year later, Emmy says. Forster mentioned it to Goering only after the war was in full swing.

"Why didn't you tell me," the Reichsmarshal asked then. "This might have prevented the war."

Goering soon realized that the air blitz of England could not win the war, she told me. He wanted to discontinue it. He would argue that his crews were too tired to go out again, or that the weather was unfavorable, but Hitler would insist on more raids.

"The Fuehrer wants me to send my men into certain death," Goering would lament. And often he would ask, as Allied planes increasingly devastated the Reich: "What can I tell the German people?"

The naive explanations and excuses made by Emmy, however unconvincing to others, seem worth repeating because they probably foreshadow the defense that her husband will make when he goes on trial as a war criminal.

"If the Allies kill Hermann they must kill all of their own soldiers," she cried. "He did only what they did—obeyed orders."

Hermann Horrified
In response to a series of questions Frau Goering told me that her husband still believes that Communists set the Reichstag fire that gave the Nazis their real boost into power (he, himself, has said recently that he no longer believes this); and that he never approved of any atrocities.

"It's true that Hermann organized the first concentration camps," she admitted, "but he Goering shown as he testified at Reichstag fire trial, actually believed Communists were guilty, his wife says. He recently admitted he no longer believes so.

only wanted to detain dangerous persons. I have overheard how outraged he was when he learned that people were beaten there, and that he ordered punishment of those who did it. Later Himmler took charge, and Hermann knew no more what went on in the camps than did any other Germans. He was horrified when, during the last years, he learned some details.

"Yes, Hermann did organize the Gestapo, but for the year he was in charge the Gestapo was very small. It only became big—that horrible instrument that Hermann, too, feared—when Himmler took over.

"Hermann always was strictly against war. In 1938, when he went to Munich, he promised me: 'I'll bring you back peace.' In 1939, with war approaching, he shouted so at Ribbentrop, who wanted war, that Hitler intervened: 'Goering, you must moderate yourself.' To which, his wife says, the Reichsmarshal retorted: 'I don't want to fight Ribbentrop's war against England.'

Emmy was exasperated because so many have committed suicide who, she believes, if alive would contribute to her husband's defense. This applies with extreme bitterness to Himmler.

"That Himmler!" she exclaimed. "That scoundrel!"

He lied to us about everything.

"How often did Hermann beg him to spare a certain person. Hermann would say: 'Please, Himmler, do it for my sake.' Himmler would answer: 'Sure, I'll burn the dossier.' But later we would learn that the person in question had been executed."

Frau Emmy denied stories that Goering and Goebbels did not get along well. They never had serious quarrels, she said.

Goering invariably called Martin Bormann, Nazi party chief, "Mephistopheles."

Trusting and Naive
Goering, on the other hand, was trusting, naive, and the best husband in the world. That is what his wife told me. Listening to Emmy, one has to remind himself of recent history to keep from thinking of the Reichsmarshal as a genuine democrat victimized by clever, unscrupulous associates.

everything would have been different."

A rather menacing phase of the Goering situation is the esteem in which both Hermann and Emmy seem still to be held. Frau Goering has long been known for generosity and active desire to help others, including Jews and anti-Nazis. I have no intention of whitewashing her, but numerous witnesses have told me of her intervention, throughout the Third Reich, for Jews and those who were married to Jews. The fact that she has been freed by American authorities indicates that she is in the clear with them.

They claim that he never was anti-Jewish, bought from Jewish stores until 1936, and during the last two years of the war was a prisoner of the SS in the very castle where I interviewed his wife.

There is a Goering legend growing up which, under certain circumstances, could make him, wittingly or otherwise, the rallying point for a new German movement that could be very troublesome.

For this reason, if no other, it is particularly important that every phase of his party activity should be brought out at his trial, and that the defense indicated by his wife's statement to me should be offset by the full truth.

The essential weakness of part of that defense is suggested by Emmy's apparent complete obliviousness of the viciousness of Nazi pre-war domestic atrocities and the naivete of her apologium: "None of my servants was in the (Nazi) party. Hermann didn't mind. He didn't mind that I helped Jews and half-Jews. He didn't mind that I preferred gramophone records made by Jewish musicians or singers such as Bruno Walter, Jascha Heifetz, Richard Tauber. He liked them himself, and often jokingly suggested: 'Let's play some Jewish music.'

Fall Coats are Fabulously Furred

By Espie Kinard
NEA Staff Writer

NEW YORK — Pulled into the spotlight by their sleeves — bulky and chunkily cuffed — coat fashions also owe a lot of their excitement to lavish use of fur. Fur meets cloth part of the way for every sound reason. It helps coats to leap the hurdles of fabric shortages. Fur makes many of bow length cuffs, yard wide borders around skirts and sometimes the entire upper half of a coat, as for example, the George Carmel design shown center. Here beige-colored woolen, which makes the skirt and a narrow panel inset in an all-nutria top, meets fur in a coat with a clinched-in middle, which is typical of half of the current coat styles that you'll see.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mrs. J. G. W. Kirshner.

Dinner To Junior Legion Baseball Club

Merchants In 100 Ohio Avenue Block Were The Hosts

Members of the Junior Legion baseball team of Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion, were guests of honor at a chicken dinner, given by merchants of the 100 block on South Ohio avenue. It was honoring the boys who carried the name into the finals of the recent State tournament for Junior Legion baseball teams, held in St. Louis.

The entire team, with the exception of one player, was present at this dinner. At that time each boy present, including the bat boy Billy "Gabby" McCrary, was presented a billfold by M. Rosen, and each boy also received a picture of the team taken at St. Louis last week as a gift from the

"Oh, it's been a nice vacation, all right. But we'll be glad to get back in the house."

Legion Post.

Milton J. Henline, of KDRO, acted as toastmaster. He introduced Mr. Rosen who in behalf of the Merchants welcomed the team to the dinner and expressed the good wishes of those sponsoring the dinner to the boys. John "Bud" Thomas, who was chosen to represent the Eastern District of Missouri at the All-American Boy's baseball game in New York City on August 28, responded.

Speaks On Legion Baseball

D. Kelly Scruton, sports editor of the Sedalia Democrat, spoke on "The Advantages Junior Legion Baseball Has to Offer to a Young Ball Player." He reviewed the history of several boys on the team who got their start with the Legion and have already made a name in baseball for themselves in Missouri, also those who are looked favorably upon by Scouts from the Major Leagues.

Ralph "Stub" Dow, football coach at Smith-Cotton high school, who accompanied the team to St. Louis to assist the boys, spoke and told of the trip to St. Louis and of the fine exhibition the boys did at Sportsman Park in the tournament. Also of some of the happenings which occurred on the trip. He stressed on the outstanding sportsmanship displayed by the entire team.

Cecil Glenn, former manager of the team, who also accompanied the boys to assist Manager William Walker, gave a brief talk and reviewed the Legion team comparing the 1945 team with that of 1940.

Bat Boy McCrary, who was nicknamed "Gabby" for the way he recited several innings of the Jefferson City-Sedalia baseball game at Marshall, was called upon and reviewed the ninth inning of the game as does "Gabby" Street.

Gene May, pitcher, who pitched the boys to the finals gave a brief talk and also thanked the merchants for the dinner.

Following the dinner the boys were guests of Aaron Gardner, Manager of Fox and Liberty Theatres at the picture shows.

Those attending were: Billy Holst, Joe Meyer, Gary Tuggle, Cal Rodgers, Jr., James Schumaker, Gene May, Joe Waters, Cecil Glenn, Ralph "Stub" Dow, James Franks, commander of Post 16, Joe Rosenthal, Jim Cooney, Bill Livengood, Donald Momborg, Ralph Waters, Billy Beck, Ralph Walker, Billy McCrary, "Bud" Thomas, Joe Henline, Mr. Henline, Mr. Rosen, and Mr. Scruton.

A RESOLUTION declaring it to be necessary to gutter both sides of Barrett Avenue, a public street in the City of Sedalia, Missouri, from the south building line of Sixteenth Street, south to the north curb line of Eighteenth Street, both public streets in said City.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Sedalia, Missouri, as follows: The Council of the City of Sedalia, Missouri, deems and hereby declares it to be necessary to construct a concrete gutter on both sides of Barrett Avenue, a public street in said city from the south building line of Sixteenth Street, south to the north curb line of Eighteenth Street, both public streets in said city; said gutter shall be constructed of concrete six inches thick and shall have an elevation on the out or property side thereof extending six inches above the surface of said gutter, and the surface of said gutter shall be twenty-four inches wide, and said gutter shall be located on a grade to conform to the established lines on said part of said street, so that the roadway of said part of said street after said gutter is completed shall be 36 feet wide. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Servicemen's corner: The fighting part of the war has moved away from them but up near the top of the world, patrolling navy beats in the Aleutians, are many sports figures whose names you will recognize from the days of peace. . . . For instance Lt. Com. Dave Bartelma, former wrestling coach at the University of Minnesota. . . . And his husky friend, Lt. Stan Kostka, who helped Minnesota win the mythical national pigskin championship in 1934, later coached at North Dakota state. . . . In the same theater are Lt. (jg) Walt Schroeder, Notre Dame footballer of 1938; Lt. (jg) Allen Sturgis, whose line play with Temple got him a pro grid job with the Philadelphia Eagles; and Lt. (jg) Fred Maass, who half-backed at Lafayette and later coached high school football at Nutley, N. J. . . .

Lt. (jg) Larry Beaumont, ex-Kansas State College basketball lighttower, loops the "hoop" in a navy plane. . . . Chief Petty Officer Art Sykes of Elmira, N. Y., who battled eight rounds in 1934 before being kayoed by a fellow named Joe Louis, later to become heavyweight champ, sends greetings to his friends. . . . So do Lt. Don Strachan of Philadelphia, national lighttower in 1935 and 1939 and CPO Paul Burke, a three letter man while at Syracuse university. . . .

Word from the Philippines finds Capt. Marvin (Bud) Ward, national amateur golf champ for the duration, transferred from the 85th fighter wing to special service under a four-star general at army headquarters in Manila. . . . Capt. Ward has accumulated 83 discharge points. . . . His present job, they say, calls for a lieutenant's rating. . . . Sgt. Manual Boody, former Denver sports writer, pens from Metz, France, that sports activity is beginning to pick up there. . . . He expects to head for the Pacific shortly.

Prediction:

Peg the University of Southern California Trojans to take up in the Rose Bowl, Jan. 1, 1946 where they left off on the first day of this year. . . . Coach Jeff Cravath is summer-practicing nine returning lettermen, including Cpt. Jim Callanan, end and two-year letterman who scored the first touchdown in the win over Tennessee in the last Rose Bowl game. . . . The Trojans will be sitting in with the equivalent of four acres compared to three of a kind for other coast conference schools.

Cubs Will Gain And Tigers Slip Say Dopesters

Past Performance Charts Perused in Order to Fortell Future of Leaders

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago should tighten its hold on the National league lead and Washington should pass Detroit in the American scramble during the intersectional series opening today, according to the past performance charts.

Although the Cubs will be on the road and the Tigers will be home, the results of the first four east vs. west tests reveal the Bruins' strength and the Bengals' weakness against their rivals from the Atlantic seaboard.

Charley Grimm's front-runners, currently six games ahead of the defending champion St. Louis Cardinals, have trimmed the eastern clubs 35 out of 54.

The Cubs come east for the last time with a "Big Four" pitching staff made possible by the addition of Hank Borowy. With Hank Wyse, Paul Derringer and Claude Passeau ready to take their turn, Grimm has Paul Erickson and Hy Vandenberg ready for "spot" duty.

The Cubs open their eastern campaign with a doubleheader today at Boston.

St. Louis is hardly in a position to make a strong bid but with time running out on the champs, Billy Southworth's gang can't afford to wait for their cripplingly to return. Both third baseman Whitely Kurowski and Pitcher Ted Wilks are back in St. Louis for arm treatments as the Cards prepare to open a New York series with a night game.

Brooklyn, also weak in the mound department, has been unable to overpower the western clubs like it has ridden over the east. Both the Dodgers and New York Giants are shuffling players from their farm clubs trying to hit on a win combination but the general impression is that the Cubs and Cards will fight it out for the big money.

Ossie Bluege's surprising Washington contenders ripped through the west, sweeping 11 of 13 last time around, and pulled to within a half game of the pace during their home stand. With six starters ready to go in rotation, Washington is well prepared for the final western tour calling for 20 games.

Although the Tigers' attack is improving, the pitching leans heavily on Hal Newhouser and Al Benton with occasional help from Stubby Overmire. Dizzy Trout's "aching back" has seriously hampered his effectiveness.

The Yankees face a golden opportunity, only three games out of first, but have played indifferently away all year. President Larry MacPhail stopped off in Buffalo today to persuade ailing Joe McCarthy to rejoin the club, a situation full of newsworthy potentials.

All American clubs, except Philadelphia, still have a chance until one of the leaders puts on a sustained drive.

sued a challenge through a San Francisco newspaper to any other one-legged man in California to a fight to the finish for a purse of $50. . . . In 1927, Gene Tunney received $990,445 for defending his title against Jack Dempsey.

Major's Car is Found in City

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 8—(P)—A man identified through fingerprints as Edward Marion Harrison, 29, Henryetta, Okla., was arrested here yesterday after he failed to explain satisfactorily why he, a civilian, should be wearing a sergeant's uniform and driving a major's automobile.

Harrison said he did not know who he was or where he was. He is under $1,000 bond awaiting trial on a federal charge of illegal possession of a sawed off shotgun. In addition complaints were filed charging him with illegal wearing of an army uniform and of violation of the Dyer act.

The car in which the man was found, belongs to Major O. B. Gunn, Sedalia, Mo., Army Air Base, and was reported stolen Monday, Robert L. Murphy of the FBI testified at Harrison's arraignment.

Murphy said Harrison has a record of three convictions for car theft and one for robbery.

Major Gunn, who resides on the base, was visiting in Kansas City when the car was taken.

Home from Europe
T/5 James F. Grady, who for the past six months has been in the European area, arrived home Monday for a 30 day leave which he is spending with his wife, 721 West Third street and his mother, Mrs. Josephine Grady, 2704 South Ohio avenue.

Civilians at Air Field Win Cash Awards

Given in Return For Suggestions For Saving Labor

SEDALIA ARMY AIR FIELD, Mo.—Under the AAF Suggestion program, four ingenious civilian employees at this First Troop Carrier Command base received cash awards recently in presentation ceremonies during which Colonel Jerome B. McCauley, base commander, told them that the money was a paltry sum in return for the aid of their suggestions.

"We are more than compensated by the man-hours, material, and money saved us," said Colonel McCauley. "We hope the suggestions will continue to come in."

The awards were as follows: $100 to Albert D. Wright of Warrensburg, formerly an employee in the airplane shop here, who designed a jig to adjust and repair landing struts. An additional $75 went to Mr. Wright for his suggestion of a down latch spring loader.

Fifty dollars went to Joseph W. Reynolds of Sedalia, for his tool to cut patches in plywood skin. Mr. Reynolds works in the wood-mill of the airplane shops.

$100 Award
William A. Lawson, Sedalia, of the Engine Build-Up Department, was awarded $100 for designing a wrench to install fire-extinguisher brackets.

Charles J. Newland, Sedalia, of the airplane shop, received $75. He designed a fixture for turning C-46 wing assemblies. It was especially valuable because one compensation case had already occurred which would have been avoided had the suggestion been in effect.

A fifth award of $25 went to Joseph G. Bryne, of Bland, Mo., employed at the satellite field of Vichy.

The committee in charge of making the awards was composed of: Lt. Col. George A. Key, chairman; Major Cecil B. Smith, Capt. Constance H. Levy, Capt. Howard M. Itz, Capt. Edward A. Bellenbaum, 1st Lt. Clifford D. Holley Jr., 2nd Lt. Edwin Boothroyd, 2nd Lt. William Powlesson, and Marvin E. Anderson, Dwight M. Boese, Howard Wilson and Miss Ernestine Rodgers, executive secretary.
